

Classic 4-color palette (also inspiration source for app name) primary color palette

thinking of round font styles to go with soft colors

Comic Sans Randed ??
Round typography to make it look approachable to users.

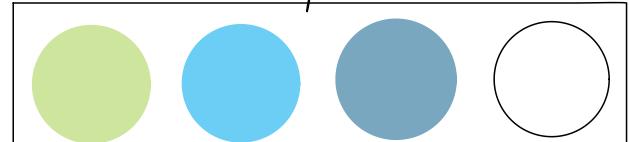

HACHIWARE

soft-color palette
but still blue-flavored cartoon-ish colors to support how it's meant for fan translation soft cold palette

bubbly - bold filled typography to add onto the cartoon - feeling existing round chubby font

Qilka Bold

thinking of a navigation bar on top or left side for easier user navigation-image along with words on editing page to reflect user's changes simultaneously for convenient viewing

Being able to show the 3 step users only have to do when entering the homepage to serve the purpose of the website 3-section separation

image previews or icons that convey obvious intended meanings really simple minimalist design so it doesn't see hard/complicated for the users to use.
